Re: Copying in the USA:

The appearance of the code at the bottom of the first page of an article in this journal (serial) indicates the copyright owner's consent that copies of the article may be made for personal or internal use, or for the personal or internal use of specific clients. This consent is given on the condition, however, that the copier pay the stated percopy fee through the Copyright Clearance Center, Inc., P. O. Box 765, Schenectady, New York 12301 for copying beyond that permitted by Sections 107 or 108 of the U. S. Copyright Law. This consent does not extend to other kinds of copying, such as copying for general distribution, for advertising or promotional purposes, for creating new collective works, or for resale. For copying from back volumes of this journal see "Permission to Photocopy: Publisher's Fee List" of the CCC.
