KUB

Handwritten text in Devanagari script, organized into columns. The text appears to be a record or ledger, possibly related to land or revenue, as indicated by the header "Rs. IV". The entries are numbered sequentially from 1 to 50.

The document features several columns of handwritten text in Devanagari script. At the top left, there is a header "Nr. 71" and "Rs. IV". Below this, the year "1782/c" is written. On the right side, the word "KUB" is visible. The main body of the document contains 50 numbered entries, each consisting of one or more lines of text. Some entries include additional markings or symbols, such as circles or dots. The handwriting is cursive and typical of historical Indian documents. The overall layout suggests a formal record-keeping system.
